Meeting opened by President, Spickelmier. He welcomed all attendees and CW Lori Boyer's assistant Allison Adams. Officers and board members were introduced.

New Business:

Treasurer's Report- General Fund $846.59 Current bill due for PO Box rental of $62 for 6 months.

Alton Allen has updated our website. If you want something added to website please send to him .

Allison Adams reported that the Landing renovation would be announced soon. There is a Chik-fil-a and a bank coming to corner of Oak Bluff and San Jose. She will check on rezoning requests in our area.

Steve reported that next month's speaker will be from Plazio (the condos behind Walgreens on Goodby's Creek). They are slated to be ready for occupancy in Feb. The lowest priced unit is in the $400,000's.

Steve also spoke with zoning and signs personnel at COJ to get them looking at possibility of a 3-way stop at Rathbone and Craven. One criteria is that there have been 3 accidents in the past 12 months. So far, there have been 2.

Attendees were asked to give Liz Yadon their name if they would like to sign up to put touchup paint on entrance signs.

Volunteers were Ben and Stacey Adkins --contact info 904.501.6154 904.210.6279
